Course Description

The Art 10/20/30 program is a blended class that will be exploring various 2D and 3D mediums and techniques that demonstrate our abilities to represent ourselves as “Artists”. We will be learning the key concepts and skills necessary to demonstrate and transform our ideas successfully into reality. The development of critical thinking skills for problem solving, the understanding of artistic process, and the history behind the creation of artwork will be key focuses of this class.

Areas of Study over 3 years

- Drawing
- Painting
- Clay Sculpture
- Printmaking
- Untraditional Sculpture
- Experimental Art
- Digital Art
- Community Art

The Studio

The Art room is your Studio – your creative space. As an artist, you need to adapt to be creative in a variety of spaces with other people and distractions around you. It is important for you to be able to learn from each other, bounce ideas off of each other, and give and receive constructive feedback. The studio has to be a respectful, clean, and safe environment for everyone.

Art Studio Rules

- How you treat me is how I treat you
- How you treat your fellow classmates is how I treat you
- How you treat the Art room reflects on you, respect our Art room

Materials & Fees

- The fees are $65 per student. This covers the cost of all materials. The only requirement is a HB pencil and eraser.
- If you forget your Pencil or Eraser I sell them for 25 cents each.
- Students may wish to purchase an apron, lab coat, or bring an old shirt to wear over their clothes to protect their clothing.
- Field trip fees are based on transportation and site entrance prices.

Evaluation

- Self-Assessment project specific Rubric, ongoing informal discussion & teacher review.
- There are no late marks deducted, however parents can expect to be contacted if assignments are missing.

GEM Awards (Fine Arts Awards, Art, Music, Drama, Musical Theatre)

Every year we host the Fine Arts awards, all students in the community should attend. The following are awarded to Art students.

- Most Original Artist
- Most Promising Artist
- Achievement of Excellence
- Outstanding Contribution
- Most Dedicated Artist

Musial Theatre

- Call to Artists! Every year the Musical Theatre department has a production. It is after school twice a week for an hour and a half. You receive 5 credits for this class. You don't have to know how to sing or dance, we need artists for set design and construction. It is a really fun class and I encourage all to join. The teachers that help put on this production are. Mr. Beseau (Art/Set Designer), Mrs. Wasyleczko (Art/Set Designer), Mr. Johnston (Music Director), Mrs. Dawes (Stage Director).
